*"Rejoice
with me ...
I have found my sheep that was lost."*

Luke 15:6, NRSV

Sunday School This Week:

If someone asked you to explain the gospel, what would you say? What is the good news of the Christian faith? Writing to the Galatians, Paul made it clear how easily we can be tempted to turn toward fraudulent gospels, especially those that teach we can earn God's love through our works. Though they may have the appearance of truth, they're lifeless and leave us empty in the end.

In this Book of the Bible series, Kyle Idleman dives into the book of Galatians, one that contains some of the clearest explanations of the gospel in the New Testament. Through biblical study and engaging lessons, Kyle shows that true freedom is found in surrender, not self-dependence. Because our gospel is not one based on our works, but faith in the finished work of Jesus Christ.

- Jan. 18th – Galatians 2:1-23
- Jan. 25th – Galatians 3:1-29
- Feb. 1st – Galatians 4:1-31
- Feb. 8th – Galatians 5:1-26
- Feb. 15th – Galatians 6:1-18

Dear Friends,
Thank you so much for the beautiful cards, kind words, and prayers that have surrounded me during my recovery from spinal fusion surgery. Each note reminded me that I am held—not only by skilled surgeons and modern medicine, but by a community of faith whose love is tangible and sustaining. Your thoughtfulness has been a genuine source of encouragement during these slower days of healing. I am deeply grateful to belong to such a caring congregation.

With sincere thanks and warm regards, Geoff
